Classified Advertising Manager,
The Washington Times,
Dear Sir:
Four years ago I bought a Haverford bicycle from the Haverford Cycle Company. I bought the wheel second-hand for $12, and the manager very kindly allowed me to make time payments upon it, which I considered an act of courtesy, considering the low price of considering the low price tesy, const the wheel.

Today this same bicycle is running as well as ever, and I heartily recommend Haverford's to any one wishing to buy a good wheel and I assure him of square deal-
